SALE ANOKA FARM Shorthorns

Dexter Park Pavilion, Chicago, Ill.

Tuesday, June 8, 1937

Imp. Phingask Bank Roll 1844925, Herd Sire.

❖ ANNOUNCING ❖ Sale of SHORTHORNS

at Dexter Park Pavilion, Chicago, Ill., Tuesday, June 8th, 1 p. m.

from ANOKA FARM, Waukesha, Wisconsin

About two years ago we began once more to re-establish a herd of Shorthorns at Anoka for Frank Harding, Jr. It has so far been possible for him to give some time to the Shorthorns, but on account of his change of location to St. Joseph, Mo., it does not seem practical to maintain the present number of animals now in the herd, but with the purchase of a few from time to time added to the nucleus, headed by Phingask Bank Roll that will remain at Anoka after the sale on June 8th, it is anticipated that within a year or two, when it is anticipated that Frank can again apply himself, there will be another sizeable herd at Anoka.

This sale will include about two-thirds of the present herd, including the most attractive and most saleable animals in the herd at this time. With the experience of many years of breeding at Anoka, and with nearly as many annual sales to serve as a guide in the building of a new herd, it was natural to try and obtain, as far as possible, a type and quality of females calculated to produce top animals of the breed, and pedigrees that would be attractive to a very critical class of breeders. To what extent this has been accomplished we submit to those who will attend the sale on June 8th.

We will attempt a brief description now of the sale offering, which will comprise from 50 to 55 head, including calves catalogued with their dams. Scotston Airman was my choice of all the bulls that were imported from Scotland in 1935. He was bought to mate with the heifers acquired in this country. That he has proved a good sire will be shown in a pronounced way by his get in this sale. About 20 of the females will carry the service of Phingask Bank Roll. The three oldest bulls in the sale are the ones illustrated herewith and are approaching one year old. The tribes with the largest number of representatives in the sale are Clippers and Augustas. Sni-A-Bar Clipper 17th and red bull calf by Scotston Airman, is descended from imported Clipper Crescent, possibly the most valuable and profitable cow ever at Anoka. We do not expect to again own a cow with the prospective value of this one. Cissy Clipper by Sanquhar Commander, with her heifer calf by Cruggleton Evergreen (the best bull in Mr. Marshall's consignment to the Argentine last year) is especially valuable and will be difficult to replace. Clipper 21st by Balmuchy Landlord, Carnelian by Royal Seal, Clipper Crystal 10th by Browndale Thistle, are the other young cows of this great tribe included in the sale.

Augusta Gitana by Bridgebank Rosedene, and Augusta Joey by Lutwyche Grafter are two Marshall Augustas—the latter with a heifer calf by Cruggleton Beverley (twice Champion at the English Royal) are especially valuable. Kalarama Augusta 30th by Browndale Thistle, with her bull calf by Edellyn Emigrant are proof of valuable qualities. There are four other Augustas included.

Velvet Beauty by Cruggleton Essander, with roan bull calf by Cruggleton Beverley (English Royal Champion) is one of the tops with a rare good pedigree.

Regan Golden Drop by Cruggleton Essander (sire of the Reserve Champion at the 1936 English Royal) with red bull calf also by Essander, should prove as valuable as any pair that have ever left Anoka.

There is a good Law Graceful cow and red bull calf by imported Cromleybank Rover, champion at the 1936 C.N.E. Lovely Maid of Glenburn 2d is a very level cow, with a show heifer calf. There are two other daughters of Balmuchy Landlord from Milky Way, besides the Clipper already mentioned. There is a good Lancaster Red Lady with a red bull calf by Scotston Airman.

The Missie tribe is represented by two of the choicest young females. Both have their calves—one is of Kalarama breeding by Browndale Thistle and the other an Edgcote Missie from Maxwalton Farms.

Princess Rowena, another imported daughter of Lutwyche Grafter, is preferred by some among the nine imported females, and her roan bull calf is also by Cruggleton Evergreen, mentioned before.

Some regard the Rosebud tribe as valuable and as popular as any. Lucia Rosebud and Kathleen Rosebud are two imported females, both with red bull calves at side—one by Essander and the other by Cruggleton Prosperitas—as an individual Lucia Rosebud will appear as one of the tops in the sale.

Rosemary 117th by Balmuchy Landlord is the dam of the young roan bull in the three group illustration. Glenburn Rosemary 4th by Glenburn Field Marshal, has a real prospect in her bull calf, Anoka Field Guard by Bugler's Guard. In alphabetical order we mention Rosewood 101st by Collynie Victor Royal (first prize winner at the C.N.E.) a real one. Space prevents mention of others specifically.

We have decided to state at this time to those who cannot attend the sale but desire to mail bids on any of these bull calves that those for which bids are received will be offered separate following the sale of the dam. Calves can be expressed safely and should take a foster mother readily after arrival. Permit us to suggest that there is too much herd bull value in these bull calves for some who may only be interested in the dam, bred again, to make it practical to sell calf and dam together.

We had planned to hold the sale at Anoka, but for the greater convenience of those who attend, and especially those who will attend the circuit of sales that week, it is decided to sell in the Sale Ring and from the quarters just south of the International Exposition Building, in Chicago, on Tuesday, June 8th, 1:00 P. M. Will be pleased to mail catalog on request.

Yours very truly,

F. W. HARDING,
FRANK HARDING.

NOTE SIMILARITY OF TYPE AND CONFORMATION.

The cuts used in this folder are for the most part made from untouched photographs, as can be seen, and the animals in life will be found to be as good at least, as pictured. They have had no special fitting for a sale and are really shown in the rough in these illustrations. 50 to 55 HEAD IN THE SALE.
